						1 What is a good citizen? A good citizen is someone who respects others and their property. He/she is helpful and considerate, willing to put others first. He/she listens to the views of others and thinks about what they have to say. He/she helps people who are not in a position to help themselves. He/she respects the environment and does not damage it in anyway. He/she is well mannered and pleasant. He/she is always willing to learn.
2	3 You may be deceived if you trust too much, but you will live in torment if you don't trust enough.	4 Respect is not imposed nor begged. It's earned and offered.	5 If you want your children to keep their feet on the ground, put some responsibility on their shoulders. Abigail Van Buren	6 Do the right thing....even when no one is looking.	7 Never believe that a few caring people can't change the world. For, indeed, that's all that ever has. Margaret Mead
9	10 NO SCHOOL	11 I recognize that making mistakes is the best way to learn. I pledge to show respect to every person in the class by never mocking those who are trying their best to learn.	12 Leadership is about taking responsibility not making excuses. Mitt Romney	13 Live so that when your children think of fairness, caring, and integrity, they think of you. H. Jackson Brown ,Jr.	14 Children will not remember you for the material things you provided, but for the feeling that you cherished them. Richard E. Evans
16	17 Trust is a fragile thing; Easy to to break. Easy to lose and one of the harest things to ever get back.	18 You can't force a person to show you respect, but you can refuse to be disrespected.	19 Accept responsibility for your life. Know that it is you who will get you were you want to go, no one else.	20 If a child lives with fairness, he learns justice.	21 Teaching kids to count is fine, but teaching them WHAT counts is best. Bob Talbert
23	24 Trust yourself, you kow more than you think you do. Benjamin Spock	25 Respect for ourselves guides our morals; respect for others guides our manners.	26 You must take personal responsibility. You cannot change the circumstances. The season, or the wind, but you can change yourself. Jim Rohn	27 Virtue, justice and humility can be integrated into the concept of fairness.
